Exclusion Criteria:

- Agencies or services which misrepresent their services.
- Private for-profit organizations at the discretion of Great Rivers 211
- Agencies that are not licensed or certified where standards exist.
- Clubs and service organizations
- Home based businesses will be considered on a case-by-case basis.
- Agencies engaged in fraudulent or illegal activities.

Disclaimers:

- A listing in the Great Rivers 211 database does not constitute endorsement of or liability for any agency program or service.
- Great Rivers 211 does not guarantee client referrals to organizations in the database. Agencies are completely and wholly responsible for screening clients for eligibility of services within their program(s).
- Great Rivers 211 reserves the right to edit agency/service information to make it compatible with software fields and to make the information consistent with other like agencies/services listed.
- Great Rivers 211 reserves the right to cancel a listing when an agency no longer meets the required criteria or if the agency does not provide updated information regarding the organization when requested by Great Rivers 211.
- Great Rivers 211 will consider the following as a basis for denying inclusion in its database:
 - Agencies denying services on basis of color, race, religion, ancestry, sexual preference, nationality, creed, or whose service is illegal.
 - When Great Rivers 211 knows or has reasonable basis to believe services to clients are not in accord with accepted community professional practices and standards.

Review Process:

Agencies that request to be added to the Great Rivers 211 database will receive a decision regarding inclusion within 14 business days of the date of the request to be included. If the decision is made to exclude an agency from the Great Rivers 211 database, the agency will be notified of the decision and the reason or reasons for the exclusion decision.

Appeal Process:

Agencies may appeal a decision to exclude the agency from the Great Rivers 211 database. To appeal an exclusion decision:

1. Complete an appeal form within 14 days of the date they were notified of the decision to exclude the agency from the Great Rivers 211 database.
2. The appeal form will be reviewed by the Great Rivers 211 Advisory Committee (AC).
